Situation

Glanyrafon is situated nearby to the handsome market town of Llandeilo that has a comprehensive range of shops, services and amenities. Additional shops and services are in Carmarthen and Swansea (20 and 30 minutes' drive respectively).

The area is renowned for its beautiful landscape and good communications. The A40 runs close by and the A48 provides rapid access to the M4 (J49) putting Cardiff just over an hour's drive. Swansea has a direct train link to Cardiff and London Paddington.

There are an abundance of recreational opportunities close by. These include fishing on the Towy and neighbouring rivers; hill walking, cycling and riding in spectacular mountain scenery; local golf courses; the National Botanical Gardens of Wales and Aberglasney are close while there are numerous castles and heritage sites throughout the area.

Glanyrafon Farmhouse

Glanyrafon is a traditional farmhouse standing in the middle of its own land with spectacular views over the river Towy and Dinefwr Castle beyond. The property is well laid out and in good order providing good accommodation with three bedrooms sharing two bathrooms. Downstairs there is large kitchen/dining room with a log burner, a drawing room and a sitting room, which are positioned either side of an entrance hall.

Outbuildings

To the rear of the farmhouse are a range of traditional buildings which, subject to the necessary planning consents, would be suitable for a variety of other uses including additional accommodation or ancillary space. A large modern agricultural building also stands adjacent to the traditional buildings currently used as a workshop and general store.
